NORRIS

Case to be Dropped.

Prosecuting Witness
Claim Has Been Paid.

His Bail Bond Was Not Renewed.

The September Term Opens
Monday Morning.

Four New Cases Commenced—Court
House News.

A DEMOCRAT reporter learned Saturday that the case against Attorney W. A. Norris would not be prosecuted.

He is under indictment for the alleged embezzlement of certain funds entrusted to him by one of his clients. The claim, which the prosecuting witness was said to have against him has been settled and the charges are to be dropped.

The whereabouts of Attorney Norris at the present time are not known. He was for some time at his home in Columbiana county, but left there recently, going to another state. His bond has not been renewed and will not be. Before the new term is over the two indictments will be nolle.

Court Opens Monday.

The September term of Common Pleas Court will open Monday. The grand jury will be charged by Judge Kohler. Wilford H. Collins, the new court stenographer, will assume the duties of his office. There are many cases to be heard this term, more than ever before.

New Cases.

Clara M. Wilson has filed an action for a divorce from Geo. H. Wilson. They were married Jan. 1, 1880. She charges him with gross neglect.

Emil Scheffer has commenced an action against F. A. Boder, asking that a receiver be appointed for the Up-to-Date laundry. The men were partners. He alleges mismanagement.

Sara Kingrey asks $1,000 damages from Seth J. Swain. She was riding a bicycle on Union st., Aug. 29, and was struck by defendant's wagon.

Evelyn Gaylord has filed a petition asking for the partition of lands in Stow.

Probate Court.

The case of the State vs. Vinton Hardy has been dismissed on motion of Prosecutor Wamaker. The defendant to pay the costs. He was charged with riding a horse on the sidewalk in Portage township. An investigation proved that there was no sidewalk where the offense is alleged to have been committed.

Adolph Hirsch has been appointed assignee of Edward Leopold. Bond $1,500.

NOTICE.

The friends and patrons of R. L. Mead, will find him again located in his old stand, 518 South Main st., ready for business.

Secure your Star course tickets. Ten great attractions to be given at the Grand Opera House for $1.

Notice to the Public.

The Leopold meat market, 190 S. Howard st., has not been closed and is doing business the same as usual.

PECULIAR

Injury Received By Mrs. Elizabeth Hunt Saturday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hunt of 207 McCoy st. met with a painful accident in a peculiar manner Saturday morning. In the floor of one of the rooms in her residence is a hole. She accidentally stepped into the hole with one of her feet, and the leg slipped through to a point above the knee. The hole being narrow, the limb was held tightly and began to swell. Before it could be extricated it was necessary to saw away a portion of a board in the floor. The injury inflicted is very painful.

Werner Company's New Book.

Mr. S. Viereck, the resident correspondent at New York, of the Berliner Tagblatt, Germany's greatest newspaper, was a visitor to Akron Saturday.

Mr. Viereck, is an ex-member of the German parliament, and a journalist and literary man of prominence. His book on Nansen, published in both the English and German, has had a large sale and has attracted much attention.

For some time, Mr. Viereck has been negotiating with the Werner company, in reference to a new book which he is about to write. It will be devoted to a life of Gov. Theodore Roosevelt. The author is a close personal friend of the distinguished soldier-statesman. Gov. Roosevelt has assured Mr. Viereck that he will give him all information he may desire.

The Werner company will print the work in both German and English.

Grand display of fireworks and last dance at Randolph park tonight.

Promoted.

The vacancy created in the commercial freight agent's office of the B. & O. by the resignation of W. H. Mairret, to accept the position of freight soliciting agent, will be filled by H. E. Warburton, of the local office. The system of promotion from the ranks is gaining great favor and encourages employees to gain a higher position.

TENTH LIKELY TO GO.

Barnett Making Arrangements to Have the Famous Pennsylvania Help Welcome Dewey.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 9.—Lieutenant Colonel James E. Barnett of the Tenth regiment, Pennsylvania volunteers, came to Pittsburgh last night from Washington, Pa. He is making arrangements for taking that famous command to New York city on the occasion of Admiral Dewey's big reception Sept. 30. The negotiations for the transportation of all members who wish to go are making considerable progress.

If it goes, the regiment enroute to New York will stop at Philadelphia, and be the guests of the Third Pennsylvania volunteers while in that city, and of the Seventy-first New York volunteers while in the metropolis.

Entertained American Officers.

GIBRALTAR, Sept. 9.—Major General F. G. Slade, the officer commanding the royal artillery here, and the other artillery officers stationed at this post, entertained the officers of the United States cruiser Olympia at dinner. Admiral Dewey was not present.
